

LOCAL NEWS.

EAST TROY, NO. 229.—The following gentlemen were installed on last Friday as officers of Eagle Tent, No. 229, Independent Order of Oddfellows:

F. C. & S. Tucker,

D. S. Thomas E. Marche,
F. S. James Gull,
T. Dr. A. H. McKim,
L. G. Charles Barkley,
G. O. John H. Hollister.

The tent is in a flourishing condition at this time. The induction of ladies has been introduced. This is a new feature and has become quite popular with the young men of the order.

DOW'S GRAVE.—Few citizens know that the remains of the eccentric and distinguished Lorenzo Dow are interred within the District of Columbia. In the old private burial ground of Mr. Howard, situated on the Twentieth street road, is buried this eminent divine. In an old neglected plot which mortal steps seldom impasse, may be seen a tombstone with this inscription:

"The remains of Lorenzo Dow, who was born in Connecticut, October 16, 1777; died February 9, 1804, aged 26.
A Christian in the highest style of man;
but looks no private road.
But looks Nature up to Nature's God."

DECHENESS AND DISGRACE.—Maria Moore, a woman often arrested by policemen and often threatened by them, was sent to the prison of New York on Saturday in default of payment of a fine of $4, which was imposed by Justice Ferguson for disorderly conduct. She was scrolling on the common in company with a bawdy named John Lark, and was under the influence of intoxicating liquor. When arrested by Officer Wallingford, she commenced hurling at Joe Davis, Beauford Lee, and other redoubtfuls. John Lark was arrested by Officer Burrow and fined $1.00 by Justice Ferguson. He was sent to the workshop before, and this punishment, though condign, may not be sufficiently severe.

METROPOLITAN POLICE REPORTS.—Saturday, Precinct No. 2—Bill Gray, assault and battery; all for hearing. Pat Clarke, drunkard soldier; to military. James Murphy, desertion; sent to Guard House. James Gallagher and Margaret Brown, laundry, two children; sent to military. George Shiley, insulted ladies; to military.

WHITHORN'S GALLERY, 454 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, OVER TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Whithorn, outstripping his competitors, has received twenty-five thousand dollars in sales since the World's Fair in London, for superior work. His Carte de Visites, both plain and colored, are all the rage. See his Photographs in colors, or his portraits in oil, and his Pictures; also Views of Paintings in the Rotunda of the Capitol. Orders for Views of Encampments promptly attended to.

WHO WILL BE GUARD?—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the editor of "Dr. Veltin," which appears in our columns. That Doctor is a most remarkable practitioner, whose art and experience in a guarantee that the unfortunate victims of intestinal indisposition will soon be rid of their trouble. His books, which you may be warned in time, and seek the best means of relief.

A WORD OF ADVICE.—Those who have been advertising for the sale of their old clothes, etc., to the public, should do so with care. Their office is at No. 45 E. street, corner of Eighth street, and he radically untrue. Thirty-five years experience has taught Dr. P. H. Fishel, that the public are very moderate. Recent cases cured in a few days. Moderate.

DR. FISHEL,

No. 45 E. street, corner of Eighth and Ninth streets, opposite the General Post Office.
